

Five years ago, when I first began my running journey, I had no idea that it wasn't the running that was going to change my life...it was going to be all the reasons why I run that made the biggest impacts.

Through the overwhelming support of my team – Team Run Amanda Run – we have raised thousands of dollars for worthy charities, and have achieved goals that I never thought were possible.

This year Team Run Amanda Run is thrilled to partner with MWDTSA to raise funds and awareness for our military men, women, and working dogs. Individuals that truly embody the meaning of sacrifice, bravery, and dedication.

Please join me in supporting both ends of the leash. You can donate through this link via PayPal:
